

Patricia Stout, BS Ed, M Div
Chaplain
HomeReach Hospice

WORKSHOP TITLE:

Clinical Conversations on End of Life:
Opening doors and being invited into the lives of the terminally ill and their loved ones.

WORKSHOP DETAILS

Tuesday, July 14, 2009
9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.
Hayes Services Building, Room G-35
Delaware, Ohio 43015
$45 per person; 3 CEUs for Counselors and Social Workers

PURPOSE

This workshop is designed to inform participants about Hospice and Bereavement care. The format for the training will include a panel discussion, case studies, lecture and discussion. This workshop is appropriate for nurses, social workers, counselors, mental health professionals, seminarians, clergy and other professionals.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the Hospice philosophy and services.
- Practical therapeutic techniques in managing personal loss
- Learning skills for effective clinical conversations.
- Understand theological reflection for working with the dying and their loved ones.

The Reverend Patricia Stout, BS Ed, M Div., is the chaplain for the HomeReach Hospice team in Delaware. In her position, she provides spiritual care and support for the local Interdisciplinary Hospice Team, visits the current Hospice patients and their families, and coordinates/facilitates Bereavement groups and services.

A former elementary teacher in Delaware, she graduated from San Francisco Theological Seminary and completed a residency year of Clinical Pastoral Education at Stanford University Hospital.

Patricia is an ordained Presbyterian minister.