PURPOSE

This presentation will provide information on the Board process of investigation and give participants an opportunity to discuss issues and ethical dilemmas that Social Workers and Counselors face every day. It is also an in-depth look at the Code of Professional Conduct, what not to do and the consequences licensees can face if they violate the rules that govern the profession.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Receive updated information regarding changes to the rules and ethical code that governs the practice of the professions.
- Receive information regarding the role of the Board and conducting investigation into alleged violations.
- Review and discuss actual cases that resulted in formal discipline by the Board.

Tammy Tingle has been employed for 21 years as an Investigator with the State of Ohio Counselor, Social Worker, and Marriage & Family Therapist Board. She is a Nationally Certified Investigator and has training in Advanced Investigative Analysis, including behavioral analysis and investigative interviewing.

In her current role, Tammy is responsible for conducting investigations of complaints filed with the Board regarding the practice of counseling, social work, and marriage and family therapy.
